

Activities of Yonago Waterbird Sanctuary Jr.Ranger Club

To foster mind for protecting wonderful our local nature to the next generation

What is Yonago waterbird sanctuary Jr.Ranger Club?

Meeting for activity

Investigation of water

Maintenance of habitat

Guide for visitor

What is Yonago waterbird sanctuary?

Landfill of Lake Nakaumi

Birds lost habitat

Activity for conservation

Left as last paradise

How is the present situation of Yonago waterbird sanctuary?

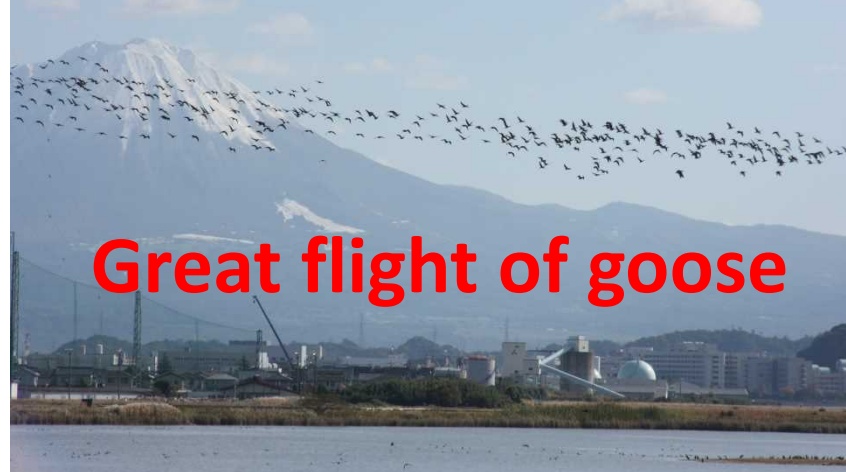

Black-faced spoonbill

White-tailed sea eagle

Over 220 kinds of wild birds

Great flight of goose

Registered under the Ramsar convention!

Ceremony for Ramsar Convention certificate

More than 20,000 birds

More than 1000 Tundra swans

What we should do!

It may be small we can do for our nature

It is very important to take over this beautiful local nature to the next generation

Therefore we continue our activities to have more people the value of our wetland

I am very glad to see you in this place and want to talk about each local nature

Thank you for your hearing!

